

2. Main Design Challenges

To build a successful system, several challenges must be addressed:

- Managing a large volume of diverse smart devices.
- Creating a clean, logical hierarchy for floors and rooms.
- Reducing code repetition while keeping the system simple.
- Ensuring the system is easily expandable for future additions.